

Taking Up Nursing

Nursing is a healthcare course that prepares students to provide safe and compassionate care. It also contributes to society by promoting health, preventing diseases, educating communities, and improving quality of life.

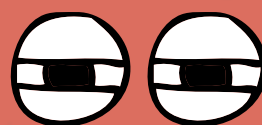

Meaningful patient care

Long and demanding shifts

Strong employment opportunities

Sleep becomes a luxury

Many career specializations

Emotional and mental pressure

Practical medical skills

Physically tiring work

NURSING STUDENT POPULATION

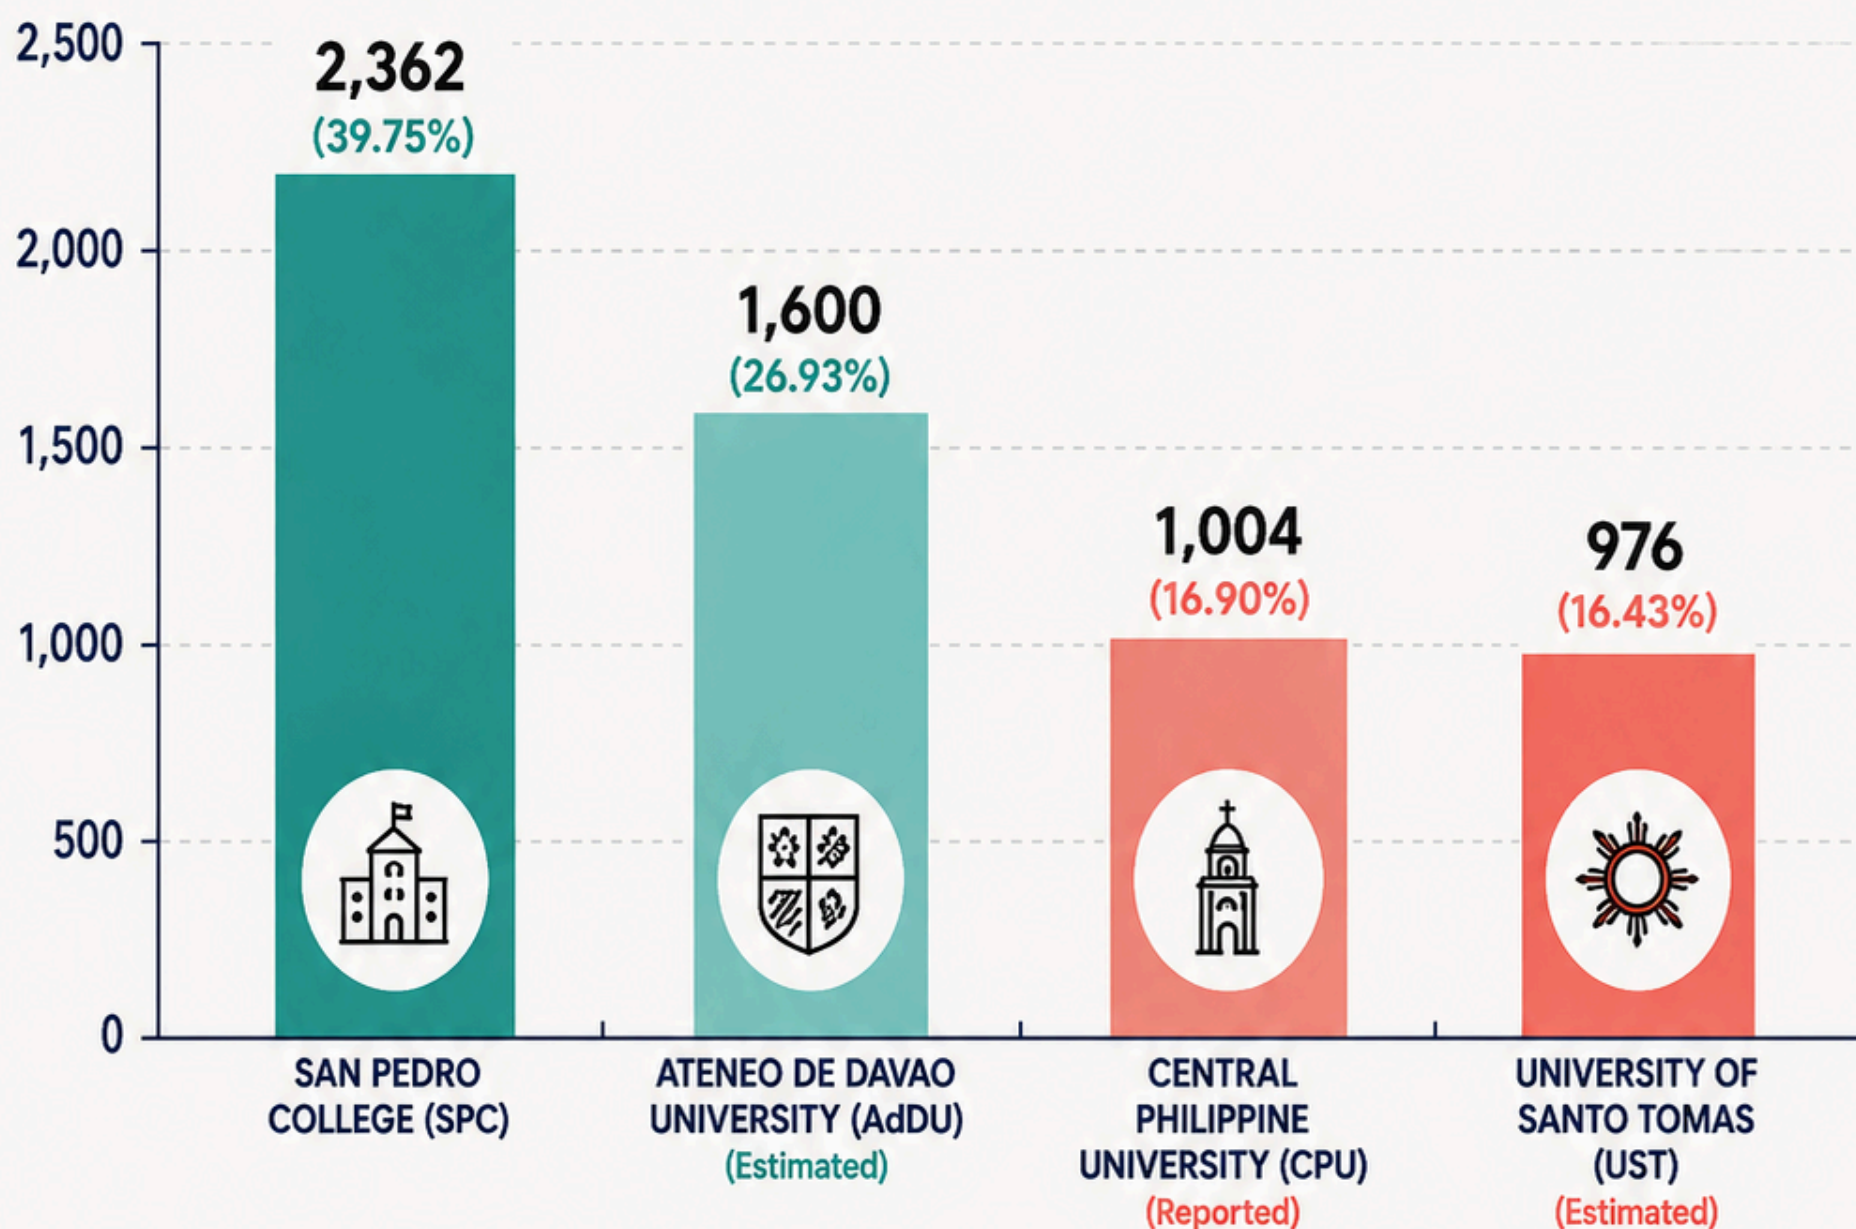

• COMPARISON OF SELECTED PHILIPPINE UNIVERSITIES •

Nursing students are the future of healthcare. Here is a comparison of the estimated or reported number of nursing students in four Philippine institutions.

ESTIMATED / REPORTED NUMBER OF NURSING STUDENTS

TOTAL (All 4 Institutions)

~5,942
students

PERCENTAGE DISTRIBUTION

of total estimated / reported nursing students

San Pedro College (SPC)	39.75%
Ateneo de Davao University (AdDU)	26.93%
Central Philippine University (CPU)	16.90%
University of Santo Tomas (UST)	16.43%